School Response to Feedback from Parent Questionnaires: New Daily Zoom Registration Meetings for all classes

Dear Parents,

I hope you have all had a restful half term.

Acting on feedback from the questionnaires we sent out to those of you with children learning at home, starting from Monday we will be doing daily zoom meetings which we expect all children learning at home to attend. Many parents indicated their children were missing seeing their friends and teachers and really enjoyed speaking to them on the zoom calls we have already established.

The zoom registration meetings will be 10-15 minutes long and give your children the chance to say hello to their class friends, their teacher and if they have any questions about work they have, they can ask them there and then.

We will be staggering the times of registration zooms between 8:45am and 9:10am for all classes (with EYFS having their zooms later in the morning around 11:30).

If your child is learning from home, it is expected that they will check into the zoom call every morning (so we can re-establish morning routines for them).

Teachers will publish the zoom links on Class Dojo but if you have any difficulties getting the links, please message your child's teacher who will be happy to help.

As before, please make sure your child is dressed and promptly on time for the call. Please respect online learning protocols (sensible backgrounds, kind language etc).

Kind regards

Mr Jenkinson
